If you have not already installed your software, please download the latest version using the correct download link on www.nch.com.au/general/sitemap.html and run the install file. Please note for downloading: The demo version is the same as the full feature - after you activate and register the software all the paid features will turn on.

The charge will appear on your credit card card statement as from NCH SOFTWARE for $AUD48.39 (approximately $USD43.95 at today's exchange rate). A formal invoice / receipt has been sent to you by email. Please check that your email program's filter does not think that the invoice email is junk or spam.

NCH Software makes many other related software applications. Some of these can be used free and the others can be purchased at a discount rate if you buy now (see below). Please visit www.nch.com.au/software for more information and downloads.
