

MR. H. V. DIXON.

The funeral of Mr. Harry Vernon Dixon, late general manager of the Colonial Sugar Refining Co., Ltd., took place yesterday. A service at All Saints', Hunter's Hill, was conducted by Rev. A. G. Hinsby, the interment taking place at the Northern Suburbs Cemetery.

The chief mourners were Messrs. W. K. Dixon, of the C.S.R., Harwood, Clarence River, and E. L. Dixon (sons), E. V., J. Manners, John M., W. P., and H. H. Dixon (brothers), and J. E. M. and K. M. Dixon (nephews).

Among those present were Messrs. E. R. Knox, P. H. Goldfinch, Thomas Hughes, H. R. Lysaght, V. Freeman, E. H. Britten, A. G. Hancock, C. M. Boyce, R. D. Fitzgerald and Miss Fitzgerald, Rev. R. J. Cameron, Rev. J. T. Dudley, Rev. D. Davies (Church of England Grammar School), Rev. A. J. Rolfe, Colonel Baldwin, and Dr. C. H. W. Lawes; Messrs. R. T. Rutledge, E. R. Day, A. G. Saddington, E. W. Fenner, S. H. Batchelor, H. G. Vernon, R. Dill Macky, C. Perkins, R. Keirle, L. C. Waterman, W. N. Stephens, A. P. Smith, A. H. Brennan, J. W. Rinaldi, R. Stobo, Harry Shelley, G. A. Lloyd, A. P. Vernon, G. H. Tillam, R. Stobo, W. A. Windeyer and Mrs. Windeyer, C. J. Titmus and Mrs. Titmus, A. H. B. Fitzhardinge (representing the manager headquarters, Bank of New South Wales), and Mr. P. Connie.

The Colonial Sugar Refining Company staff was represented by Dr. Guthrie, Messrs. B. R. Riley, W. W. Davis, C. W. Rothe, C. W. R. Powell, R. E. Goddard, W. E. Gilchrist, E. S. Smith, F. P. Boundy, Brennan, H. F. Clarke, M. P. Brownrigg, J. L. Crennan, W. R. Walker, W. Gosling, L. Trevor Jones, F. Early, Watson, S. E. Spragg, S. S. Smith, G. R. Smith, Stocks, A. P. Smith, Feist, H. F. Howe, Barry, R. T. Rutledge, E. R. Day, D. Barry, L. C. Waterman, F. F. Buchanan, E. A. Holden, H. Lee Smith, J. Heisham, G. Blaxland, H. W. Upton, H. Garling, B. B. Lench, J. H. Harricks, N. M. Thomas, B. Trivett, and a number of pensioners.